So, for example, for your Deville Cadillac, if you buy parts for your car that are not actually made by Cadillac, then those are called aftermarket. Many people use the term Deville aftermarket parts specifically when referring to custom parts for Deville, as performance parts or custom appearance parts. But even if you just replace your Deville brake pads with OEM-level factory-style brake pads that are not made by Cadillac, those are also Deville after-sales parts. Throughout the life of a car, it will almost certainly have after-sales parts installed in it at some point, even if the car never really modded out.
